Supplements to Kidney International

Supplements 2 and 3, Volume 7, 1975: Adequacy of Dialysis; Uremia

Absorption
  intestinal, in uremia, S-113 Activated carbon
  in hemoperfusion devices, S-406
Adequacy,
  of dialysis, S-3
Adsorbents
  hemoperfusion for uremia, intoxication and hepatic failure, S-387
  in hemoperfusion, S-401
  nonbiological particulate matter, S-397
Aerobic glycolysis
  of cartilage in uremia, S-333
Aliphatic amines
  metabolism and toxicity of, S-314
Amines
  aliphatic, S-314
Amino acids
  intracellular free amino acids in uremia, S-345
  in uremia, S-306
  in uremic hemodialysis patients, S-64
Atherosclerosis
  in hemodialysis patients, S-370

Blood pressure
  response with diafiltration, S-413
Bone
  effect of high molecular weight fraction of normal urine on, S-338 histomorphometry of, after calcium carbonate or 25-hydroxycholecalciferal treatment, S-102 mineral-collagen maturation in end-stage renal insufficiency, S-97
  renal osteodystrophy during dialysis, S-249 Brain
  in uremic encephalopathy, S-194

Calcium
  bone morphology and serum mineral and parathyroid hormone values after administration of, S-102
  defective intestinal absorption of, in uremia S-113 effects on dialysis patients, S-118 Calories
  intake of, and growth in uremia, S-73
Carbon
  in hemoperfusion devices, S-406
Cardiovascular complications
  adequacy of dialysis treatment and prevention of, S-154 Cardiovascular disease
  in hemodialysis patients, S-167
Cardiovascular response
  evaluation in dialysis patients, S-263
Cartilage
  alterations of, in chronic uremia S-333
Charcoal
  life prolongation in nephrectomized rats fed, S-377 Chemotaxis
  of leukocytes in uremia, S-147
Clinical trials
  Artificial Kidney-Chronic Uremic Program, S-243
Collagen
  bone mineral-collagen maturation in end-stage renal insufficiency, S-97
Complement
  recurrent glomerulonephritis and hypocomplementemia after transplantation, S-323
Complications
  as a result of dialysis, S-30 Concentration dependence of uremic lesions, S-35
Creatinine
  metabolism and toxicity, S-294

Diafiltration
  blood pressure response to, S-413
Dialysis
  adequacy of, and cardiovascular complications, S-154
  cardiovascular disease in patients on, S-167
  cardiovascular response evaluation, S-263
  complications, S-30
  control of hypertension during, S-184
  hematologic response evaluation, S-261
  intestinal loop dialysis, S-373
  neurological response evaluation, S-256
  nutritional evaluation, S-249
  optimal, S-365
  pharmacokinetic and pharmacodynamic considerations of, S-7
  platelet function as an indicator of the adequacy of, S-144
  protein and amino acid metabolism during, S-64
  quantification of, in research protocols, S-246
  renal osteodystrophy during, S-249
  selection of patients for experimental studies, S-222
  short daily peritoneal, S-425
  statistical methods for assessing, S-231
  uremic peripheral neuropathy during, S-201

Dialysis index
quantitative description of dialysis treatment, S-23
Dialysis kinetics
concentration dependence of uremic lesions, S-35
Dialyzer
heparin-grafted hollow fiber dialyzer, S-431
Diet
in uremic hemodialysis patients, S-64
nutritional evaluation of dialysis patients, S-249 Drug therapy
in chronic dialysis patients, S-16

Electroencephalography
neurologic abnormalities in uremia, S-210
Encephalopathy
in uremia, S-194
Erythropoietin
effect of uremic toxins on, S-129

Glomerulonephritis
and hypocomplementemia after transplantation, S-323
Glucose
muscle content of, and hexokinase in uremia, S-341
Glycolysis
of cartilage in uremia, S-333
Growth
in uremia, S-73
Guanidine
toxicity arising from compounds of, S-299 Guanidinoproprionic acid presence and toxicity of, in uremia, S-302

Hematologic disorders
role of dialysis in, in uremia, S-123
Hematologic responses
evaluation in dialysis patients, S-261
shortened red blood cell survival in uremia, S-139 Hemodiafiltration
blood pressure response with maintenance diafiltration, S-413
clinical response to, S-58
Hemodialysis
adequacy of, and cardiovascular complications, S-154
cardiovascular disease in patients on, S-167
cardiovascular response evaluation, S-263
complications, S-30
control of hypertension during, S-184
hematologic response evaluation, S-261
neurological response evaluation, S-256
nutritional evaluation, S-249
optimal, S-365
pharmacokinetic and pharmacodynamic considerations of, S-7
platelet function as an indicator of the adequacy of, S-144
quantification of, in research protocols, S-246
quantitative index of dialysis, S-23
renal osteodystrophy during, S-249
selection of patients for experimental studies, S-222
statistical methods for assessing, S-231
uremic peripheral neuropathy during, S-201
Hemodynamics
of hypertension in uremia, S-155
Hemoglobin
hemodialysis and oxygen binding to, S-134
Hemoperfusion
activated carbon fibers in devices for, S-406
adsorbents in, S-401
by nonbiological particulate matter, S-397
for uremia, intoxication and hepatic failure, S-387 Heparin
grafted hollow fiber dialyzer, S-431
Hexokinase
and muscle glucose content in uremia, S-341
Hollow fiber dialyzer
successful use in sheep, S-431
Home dialysis
past, present and future of, S-418
Hypersensitivity
chemotaxis of leukocytes in uremia, S-147
Hypertension
control of, in hemodialysis, S-184
hemodynamics of, in uremia, S-155
in chronic renal failure, S-176 Hypocomplementemia
and recurrent glomerulonephritis after transplantation, S-323

Intestinal absorption
of calcium in uremia, S-113
Intestinal loop dialysis,
inferences from, S-373

Leukocytes
chemotaxis of, in uremia, S-147
Liquid membranes
and chronic uremia, S-409

Membranes
liquid membrane system, S-409
neuropathic toxins and dialysis membranes, S-52 Membranoproliferative glomerulonephritis
recurrent glomerulonephritis and hypocomplementemia after transplantation, S-323
Metabolism
of minerals in uremia, S-85
Methylguanidine
as a uremic toxin, S-299
"Middle" molecules
as toxins, S-349
neuropathy and "middle" molecule toxins, S-352
peptides in uremia, S-272
selective dialysis of, S-361
Mineral
bone mineral-collagen maturation in end-stage renal insufficiency, S-97
Mineral metabolism
in uremia, S-85
Monoamine oxidase
in uremia, S-328
Muscle
glucose content of, and hexokinase in uremia, S-341

Neurobehavioral dysfunction
in uremia, S-217
Neurological aspects
of uremia, S-188, S-210

Neurological response
evaluation in dialysis patients, S-256
Neuropathic toxins
effect of porous dialysis membranes on, S-52 Neuropathy

peptides of "middle" molecular weight in, S-272
search for uremic toxins, S-270
therapeutic technologies in, S-267
toxicity arising from urea, S-288
tryptophan metabolism in, S-311
urea cycle and toxicity, S-285

Vitamin D
bone histomorphometry and serum mineral and parathyroid hormone values after administration of, S-102 metabolism in chronic renal failure, S-90 Vitamins
nutrition in hemodialysis patients, S-79

Contents for Volume 7

January—June, 1975

Number 1, January 1975

The isolated perfused kidney: Possibilities, limitations and results. Alphonse Nizet 1
Active and passive immunization to angiotensin in experimental acute renal failure. Donald E. Oken, Susanne C. Cotes, Walter Flamenbaum, John D. Powell-Jackson and Anthony F. Lever 12
Nephron functional heterogeneity in the postobstructive kidney. Douglas R. Wilson 19
The effect of ischemia on renal blood flow in the dog. Arthur L Riley, Edward A. Alexander, Stephen Migdal and Norman G. Levinsky 27
Lanthanum permeability of tight junctions along the collecting duct of the rat. C. Craig Tisher and William E. Yarger 35
Whole kidney volume/pressure relationships. Lee A. Hebert, Karl A. Stuart and John A. Stemper . . 45
Culture of isolated renal tubules: A method of assessing viability of normal and damaged cells. Stephen R. Ash, Francis E. Cuppage, Marion E. Hodes and Ewald E. Selkurt 55
Announcements 61

Number 2, February 1975

Urinary tract infection: Value of early diagnosis. A. W. Asscher 63 Inhibition of active sodium transport by radiographic contrast media. Thomas W. Ziegler, James H. Ludens, Darrell D. Fanestil and Lee B. Talner . . 68
Renal action of cholera toxin: I. Effects on urinary excretion of electrolytes and cyclic AMP. Robert M. Friedler, Kiyoshi Kurokawa, Jack W. Coburn and Shaul G. Massry 77
Oxidative metabolism of the normal rat glomerulus. F. Gregoire 86
Lack of relationship of potential difference to fluid absorption in the proximal renal tubule. Jean Cardinal, Michael D. Lutz, Maurice B. Burg and Jack Orloff 94
Factors influencing sodium and water excretion in uremic man. Berry P. Y. Yeh, David J. Tomko, William K. Stacy, Edward S. Bear, Halcott T. Haden and William F. Falls, Jr. 103
Focal glomerular sclerosis in nephrotic patients: An electron microscopic study of glomerular podocytes. Edith Grishman and Jacob Churg 111
Announcements 123

Number 3, March 1975

Fluoride and bone disease in uremia. T. K. Sreepada Rao and Eli A. Friedman 125
Metabolism of blood glucose by the intact functioning kidney of the dog. Robert F. Pitts and Martha B. MacLeod 130
Renal action of cholera toxin: II. Effects on adenylate cyclase-cyclic AMP system. Kiyoshi Kurokawa, Robert M. Friedler and Shaul G. Massry 137
Ultrastructure of a specialized neck region in the rabbit nephron. Henrik C. Schønheyder and Arvid B. Maunsbach 145 Effect of diphosphonate on crystallization of calcium oxalate in vitro. Charles Y. C. Pak, Masahiro Ohata and Karen Holt 154
Effect of hypotonicity on cyclic adenosine monophosphate formation and action in vasopressin target cells. Patrick Eggena, John Christakis and Ludwig Deppisch 161 Indomethacin enhancement of glycerol-induced acute renal failure in rabbits. Vicente E. Torres, Cameron G. Strong, J. Carlos Romero and David M. Wilson 170
Renal function after release of chronic unilateral hydronephrosis in man. Jay Y. Gillenwater, Frederic B. Westervelt, Jr., E. Darracott Vaughan, Jr. and Stuart S. Howards 179
Abstracts, Italian Society of Nephrology, October 8–9, 1974 187
Announcements 198

Number 4, April 1975

Introduction. Robert H. Heptinstall and Liliane Morel-Maroger 201
Dense deposit disease: A variant of membranoproliferative glomerulonephritis. Renée Habib, Marie-Claire Gubler, Chantal Loirat, H. Ben Maiz and Micheline Levy 204
Focal mesangiopathic glomerulonephritis: Prevalence and pathogenesis. Frederick G. Germuth, Jr. and Eugene Rodriguez 216
Recurrent hematuria and focal glomerulonephritis. Robert L. Vernier, Jack S. Resnick and Michael Mauer 224
Recurrence of mesangial deposition of IgA after renal transplantation. Jean Berger, Halina Yaneva, Bernadette Nabarra and Claude Barbanel 232

Participation of intravascular coagulation in the pathogenesis of glomerular and vascular lesions. Priscilla Kincaid-Smith 242
Ultrastructure of glomerular disease: A review. Jacob Churg and Edith Grishman 254
Tubular and interstitial renal disease due to immunologic mechanisms. Giuseppe A. Andres and Robert T. McCluskey 271
Announcements 290

Number 5, May 1975

Some aspects of proximal tubular sodium chloride reabsorption in Necturus kidney. Guillermo Whittembury, Françoise Diezi, Jacques Diezi, Kenneth Spring and Gerhard Giebisch 293
Nature of the acidifying defect after relief of ureteral obstruction. John Walls, John E. Buerkert, Mabel L. Purkerson and Saulo Klahr 304
Role of parathyroid hormone in the phosphaturia of extracellular fluid volume expansion. Edward G. Schneider, Ralph S. Goldsmith, Claud D. Arnaud and Franklin G. Knox 317
Renal mitochondrial glutamine metabolism and dietary potassium and protein content. William R. Adam and David P. Simpson 325 Reaction constants of renin in juxtaglomerular apparatus and plasma renin activity after renal ischemia and hemorrhage. Peter C. Weber, E. Held, E. Uhlich and J. Eigler 331
Interstitial immune complex nephritis in patients with systemic lupus erythematosus. Jan R. Brentjens, Marian Sepulveda, Ted Baliah, Carl Bentzel, Bernard F. Erlanger, Charles Elwood, Mario Montes, Konrad C. Hsu and Giuseppe A. Andres . . 342
Control of aldosterone responsiveness in terminal renal failure. Peter Weidmann, José de Lima, David I. Hirsch and Morton H. Maxwell 351
Abstracts, The Renal Association, October 23, 1974 . 360
Dutch Society of Nephrology, November 30, 1974 . 362
Swiss Society of Nephrology, November 30, 1974 . 364
Announcements 369

Number 6, June 1975

The kidney in sickle cell anemia. George A. O. Alleyne, L. W. Statuis Van Eps, Stephen K. Addal, George D. Nicholson and H. Schouten 371
Effect of starvation on renal metabolism in the rat. Franklyn I. Bennett, Jennifer E. Alexander, Anne Roobol and George A. O. Alleyne 380
Influence of glomerular filtration rate on the rate of p-aminohippurate secretion by the rat kidney: Micropuncture and clearance studies. Dieter Häberle 385
Effects of nephron reduction and dietary protein content on renal ammoniagenesis in the rat. Anton C. Schoolwerth, Richard S. Sandler, Patricia M. Hoffman and Saulo Klahr 397 Suppression of antidiuretic hormone secretion by clonidine in the anesthetized dog. Michael H. Humphreys and Ian A. Reid 405
Acquiescent renal infection. Thomas E. Miller, Derek North and Susan Burnham 413
Influence of dialysate calcium concentration and vitamin D on serum parathyroid hormone during repetitive hemodialysis. Roger Bouillon, Rene Verberckmoes and Pieter De Moor 422
An animal model of reversible cardiac edema. Henry Mandin, Fred Alexander and John Kirstein 433
Announcements 437
